 A photograph of the Rockwell Falls Public Library sign. The sign is a white rectangular plaque with a black border, mounted on a black metal frame with a dark roof. The text on the sign reads "Rockwell Falls PUBLIC LIBRARY". The sign is set in a grassy area with a white building and trees in the background.	 A photograph of a woman with short grey hair, wearing a grey cardigan over a black top and patterned pants. She is sitting on a black stool outdoors, holding two colorful children's books. The background shows green foliage and a stone path.

Any children over the age of 5 can obtain a library card. Parents and students are encouraged to stop in or call the library (518 696 3423). Children under the age of 17 need parental permission to obtain a card. Applications can be done over the phone.

Please feel free to stop into the library to check out our loanable STEM Kits.
